Nashville, TN 37243

Dear Chief Clerks:

By this letter, I appoint Chancellor Carma McGee to fill the vacancy of the Tennessee Court of Appeals, Western Section created by the appointment of Brandon Gibson as Senior Advisor in the Office of the Governor. Chancellor McGee's exemplary service as a trial judge and standing in the community renders her ideally suited to serve the State of Tennessee in this role. A copy of her application to the Governor's Council for Judicial Appointments is available at the following link: http://www.tncourts.gov/sites/default/files/docs/mcgee_redacted.pdf.

Pursuant to Article VI, Section 3 of the Tennessee Constitution and Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 17-4-102(a), I present this appointee for confirmation by the General Assembly.

Sincerely,

/s/ Bill Lee

REPORT OF SELECT COMMITTEE
CONFERENCE COMMITTEE REPORT ON

Senator Gresham moved to amend as follows:

AMENDMENT NO. 4

AMEND by inserting the following new section immediately preceding the effective date section and renumbering the effective date section accordingly:

SECTION _____. Tennessee Code Annotated, Title 49, Chapter 7, Part 1, is amended by adding the following as a new section:

(a) Notwithstanding § 10-7-504 or any other law to the contrary, records maintained by an intercollegiate athletics program of a public institution of higher education must be treated as confidential and must not be open for public inspection if the records contain information relating to game or player integrity and that is traditionally not revealed publicly due to the public institution of higher education's need to maintain competitiveness in the sport to which the records relate.

(b) As used in this section, "information relating to game or player integrity and that is traditionally not revealed publicly due to the public institution of higher education's need to maintain competitiveness in the sport to which the records relate" includes, but is not limited to, plays or playbooks; signals; plans, techniques, philosophies, strategies, systems, drills, or schemes for practices, games, or other team activities; recordings of practices, games, or other team activities; assessments of a participant including a player, recruit, game official, or opposing coach; information related to nutrition, medical care, physical therapy, recovery, strength-training, conditioning, or a player's likelihood of participating in a sport or athletic competition; and other information which, if disclosed to the public, reasonably could be used to affect the integrity of a sport, athletic contest, a participant in a sport or athletic contest, or a bet or wager on a sport or athletic contest.

(c) This section does not limit access to records:

(1) Of a law enforcement agency, court, or other governmental agency that is performing an official function;

(2) That relate to a court's or governmental agency's determination that an individual or a public institution of higher education violated a law; or

(3) That relate to a notice of an allegation by, or a determination of, the National Collegiate Athletic Association (NCAA) that an individual or institution violated a NCAA rule, including, but not limited to, a warning, reprimand, fine, suspension, termination, or other similar action, imposed by a public institution of higher education or the NCAA.

(d) This section does not prohibit a coach or other employee of a public institution of higher education from releasing information related to a player's injury, a player's or team's readiness to participate in a competition, or any other observation or strategy if the release of information is part of the traditional and regular communication that a coach or other employee of a public institution of higher education voluntarily releases to inform the public.

(e) Notwithstanding subsection (a), records, or parts of records, that are confidential pursuant to this section must be released to the public upon a request made in accordance with § 10-7-503 when the public's interest in the content of the records outweighs the interest of game or player integrity or the need to maintain competitiveness in the sport to which the records relate, or when game or player integrity or the need to maintain competitiveness in a sport are no longer relevant due to the passage of time. For purposes of this subsection (e), "public interest" includes, but is not limited to, accountability of the public institution of higher education, public officials, or employees of the public institution of higher education. This subsection (e) does not apply to records otherwise confidential under state or federal law.

(f) This section is repealed on July 1, 2026.

On motion, Amendment No. 4 was adopted.

On motion of Senator Gresham, Amendment No. 1 was withdrawn.

On motion of Senator Gresham, Amendment No. 2 was withdrawn.

On motion of Senator Gresham, Amendment No. 3 was withdrawn.

SENATE BILL ON HOUSE AMENDMENT

Senate Bill No. 577 -- Expunction -- As introduced, permits an eligible petitioner to have multiple, nonviolent convictions for offenses that resulted from the petitioner's status as a victim of human trafficking expunged if the expunction is in the best interest of justice and public safety. Amends TCA Title 39 and Title 40, Chapter 32.

HOUSE AMENDMENT NO. 1

AMEND by deleting all language after the enacting clause and substituting instead the following:

SECTION 1. Tennessee Code Annotated, Title 40, Chapter 32, is amended by adding the following new section:

40-32-105.

(a) Notwithstanding § 40-32-101, a person may file a petition for expunction of that person's public records involving offenses related to the person's status as a victim of human trafficking.

(b) In order to be eligible for expunction pursuant to this section, the petitioner must meet the following requirements:

(1) At the time of the filing of the petition for expunction at least one (1) year has elapsed since the completion of the sentence imposed for the petitioner's most recent criminal offense;

(2) The petitioner has fulfilled the following requirements of the sentence imposed by any court in which the individual was convicted of an offense:

(A) Completion of any term of imprisonment or probation;

(B) Meeting all conditions of supervised or unsupervised release; and

(C) If so required by the conditions of any of the sentences imposed, remaining free from dependency on or abuse of alcohol or a controlled substance or other prohibited substance for a period of not less than one (1) year;

(3) The petitioner has not been convicted of any criminal offense during the one (1) year prior to filing the petition and is not subject to any pending criminal charges;

(4) At least one (1) of the convictions to be expunged was for prostitution, as prohibited by § 39-13-513;

(5) The petitioner has not had public records previously expunged pursuant to this section;

(6) The convictions to be expunged:

(A) Did not have as an element the use, attempted use, or threatened use of physical force against the person of another;

(B) Did not involve the use or possession of a deadly weapon; and

(C) Are individually eligible for expunction under § 40-32-101(g); and

(7) Each of the convictions to be expunged resulted from the petitioner's status as a victim of human trafficking, under § 39-13-314. The petitioner may provide evidence of this requirement by testimony or affidavit. This subdivision (b)(6) does not require a conviction for an offense of which the petitioner was the victim. Any offense to be expunged must have occurred on or after the date on which the petitioner became a victim of human trafficking, as determined by the court.

(c) A person seeking expunction pursuant to this section must petition the court in which the person was most recently convicted of an offense. Upon filing of the petition, the clerk must serve the petition on the district attorneys general for each jurisdiction in which the petitioner has been convicted of an offense that is to be expunged. Not later than sixty (60) days after service of the petition, the district attorneys general may submit recommendations to the court and provide a copy of such recommendations to the petitioner.

(d) Both the petitioner and the district attorneys general may file evidence with the court relating to the petition. If necessary, the court may schedule a hearing for the purpose of taking testimony from the petitioner and any other interested persons. In making a decision on the petition, the court shall consider all evidence and weigh the interests of the petitioner against the best interests of justice and public safety.

(e) If the court determines that the petitioner meets the requirements of subsection (b) and that the expunction is in the best interests of justice and public safety, the court shall order the person's records involving convictions resulting from the person's status as a victim of human trafficking expunged.

(f) If the court denies the petition, the petitioner may not file another such petition until at least two (2) years from the date of the denial.

(g) The district attorneys general conference shall create, by September 1, 2019, a simple form to enable a lay person to petition the court for expunction under this section.

(h) The petition and proposed order must be prepared by the office of the district attorney general and given to the petitioner to be filed with the clerk of the court. A petitioner is entitled to a copy of the order of expunction and such copy is sufficient proof that the person named in the order is no longer under any disability, disqualification, or other adverse consequence resulting from the expunged convictions.

(i)(1) Notwithstanding any other law to the contrary, an order of expunction granted pursuant to this section entitles the petitioner to have all public records of the expunged convictions destroyed in the manner set forth in this section.

(2) An expunction granted pursuant to this section has the legal effect of restoring the petitioner, in the contemplation of the law, to the same status occupied before the arrest, indictment, information, trial, and conviction for the expunged offenses. Once the expunction order is granted, no direct or indirect collateral consequences that are generally or specifically attendant to the petitioner's conviction by any law shall be imposed or continued.

(3) A petitioner with respect to whom an order has been granted under this section is not guilty of perjury or otherwise giving a false statement by reason of the person's failure to recite or acknowledge the arrest, indictment, information, trial, or conviction in response to any inquiry made of the petitioner for any purpose.

(4) As used in this section, expunction means, in contemplation of law, the conviction for the expunged offenses never occurred and the person shall not suffer any adverse effects or direct disabilities by virtue of the criminal offenses that were expunged.

(5) Notwithstanding § 39-17-1307(b)(1)(B) and (c), a petitioner whose petition is granted pursuant to this section, and who is otherwise eligible under state or federal law to possess a firearm, is eligible to purchase a firearm pursuant to § 39-17-1316 and apply for and be granted a handgun carry permit pursuant to § 39-17-1351.

(j) The clerk of the court maintaining records expunged pursuant to this section shall keep such records confidential. The records are not public and may only be used to enhance a sentence if the petitioner is subsequently charged and convicted of another crime. This confidential record is only accessible to the district attorney general, the defendant, the defendant's attorney, and the circuit or criminal court judge.

(k) Upon filing the petition, the petitioner shall pay the clerk of court a fee, as described in § 40-32-101(g)(9).

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect July 1, 2019, the public welfare requiring it.
